

PROGRAM TITLE Management of Chemotherapy Induced Nausea and Vomiting

LOCATION Sachiko's Porterhouse Restaurant
126 Old Graves Mill Road
Lynchburg, VA
(434) 237-5655

DATE/ TIME Monday, November 1, 2004
Reception: 6:00 - 6:30 PM
Program/Dinner 6:30 – 8:30 PM
Directions: Take US-460-BUS E ramp toward TIMBERLAKE RD/LYNCHBURG. 0.5 miles; Merge onto US-460 BR E. 3.4 miles; Turn LEFT onto OLD GRAVES MILL RD. <0.1 miles; End at 126 OLD GRAVES MILL RD, LYNCHBURG VA.
Region III, Virginia Society of Health-System Pharmacists

COORDINATING ORGANIZATION Sponsor: Jay Honse, Glaxo Smith Kline
MEETING FEES Free to VSHP members/ $25 for guests/ nonmembers
(space is limited for guests/ nonmembers)

LOCAL CONTACT Michael Bentley, Pharm. D. , 540-981-7943 or mbentley@carilion.com
RSVP by Thursday, October 28 by 1:00pm
Check www.vshp.org for this and future programs.

Speaker Debbie Kennedy
Clinical Educator
Glaxo Smith Kline Oncology

- Objectives:
- A. Define chemotherapy-induced nausea and vomiting
 - B. Review the pathophysiology of nausea and vomiting induced by chemotherapy
 - C. Define acute, delayed, and anticipatory emesis
 - D. List the major classifications of agents used for controlling chemotherapy induced nausea and vomiting
 - E. Explain the dosing for each agent and any contraindications
 - F. List the strategies for managing nausea and vomiting days 2 and 3 post chemotherapy administration

An educational program for pharmacists and pharmacy technicians with 1.2 contact hours of continuing education (0.12 CEU) provided by Glaxo Smith Kline